

Another gospel

One of the deadliest teachings in many churches today is the misguided belief that repentance has no connection to our salvation.

We are told instead that all we only need to do believe. All we need to do is simply believe in our hearts.

But this is a lie from the devil himself!

The devil also believes and so have many wicked man in the past. But they have never been saved. They have believed that there is a God but they have still ended up in eternal darkness.

The invention of a god of love who goes 'easy' on sin is a very modern invention.

But this god does not exist. He is not real and He is most certainly not the God of the Bible. He is an idol that we ourselves have created for the sake of our own comfort and for our convenience.

This false god of love which we have invented is a very harmless creation indeed.

Sin is not a big deal to him. In fact sin hardly matters to him at all. He is the god who always goes easy on sin.

'Sin', 'hell', 'judgment' are words which are very rarely mentioned in many 'modern' churches today (unless the meaning of those words has been completely changed or distorted)

The message must always be positive. It must always focus on love.

Such a god of love can even unify a church with other religions. In the words of one very confused and misguided Christian teacher who once proclaimed that: "Muslims are my brothers in Christ".

But statements like this are always built on lies and deception and they rely on the ignorance of those who listen (for the false Isa of the Quran has absolutely nothing in common with the true Jesus of the Bible. Isa was never God's son and he did not die for our sins on the cross. He is an imitation which lacks any substance)

The moment I only focus on love at the expense of truth I have built a house without a solid foundation. I have created a god who is nothing more than an imitation. I have created an idol. If your faith is solely based in the believe of a god of love without acknowledging any Gods other divine attributes, of His true character and without any recognition of personal sin, with no desire to repent of your sin then you have been seduced by the subtle words of a liar.

If your faith in a god of love reduces the recognition of sin in your heart and reduces the desire to repent of your sin then you have fallen for the deceptive lies of the devil.

When the Holy Spirit exposes a sin in your life (this goes directly against the false claims of many 'hyper grace' teachers who deny outright that the Holy Spirit would ever bring a sin to our attention), if He, the Holy Spirit of God expose a sin He will never do so for the sake of bringing condemnation on you but He only expose our sins for the sake of forgiveness and for the sake of our deliverance.

Repentance not only results in forgiveness (as well as the healing of our memory of sins) but it also results in an inner healing of our soul itself. It results in the restoration of our spirit.

When we first meet the Lord and came before Him in genuine and in true repentance all our sins have been forgiven.

This includes every single sin that we had ever committed.

When we repent before God we not only repent of individual sins but we also repent because we are sinners by nature.

If an individual sin come into our mind years later then we can be assured that the Holy Spirit never brings this sins to our attention for a very different reason.

The recognition of sin (which is the true recognition of who we really are before God) will always lead us into a much deeper level of fellowship with our Lord.

There can be no sanctification without recognition of sin in our life!!!

Beware of any pastor, stay clear of any church leader who claims to have had an encounter with God without also having had a deep and powerful recognition of sin in his life.

Such a man will always be fake!

He will never be able to lead the sheep to the living water they need in order to grow and to prosper. Instead he will lead them to a well of muddy water which has been poisoned instead.

When Daniel stood before God he could suddenly see himself for who he really was.

Any teaching, any theology that 'belittles' sin must always be rejected outright.

Only a fake man of God will dare to 'belittle' sin in our life.

A pastor who never preaches about sin, who never challenges the sins in our life and who never leads his flock to repentance is a pastor who deliberately leads many of his misguided flock into hell.

Our flesh finds great comfort in the belief of a universal 'god of love' for we do not want to be challenged about sin.

A genuine recognition of sin in our heart is the most painful experience that we can ever encounter. We will do everything we can in order to cover up the sins in our life. We can talk about sin in very general terms (which is never a threat) but the moment the encounter with sin becomes personal we end up like Daniel. We will stand before Him totally naked and completely exposed. We will encounter the throne of an almighty, holy and pure God and we will not be ready for this.

Because we don't want to be challenged about sin we have created an idol instead.

We have created a god who does not even exist.

Adultery is the greatest sin in the church of today!

We don't want change. We want free control and free reign over our life (some false Christian books even tell us that we are entitled to reign in our life) So god becomes the wealthy uncle (or grandfather) who is non-threatening, who is only there to dish out health, wealth, prosperity and anything else that we want or desire.

It is easy to fill a church with a 'positive' message, with sermons that will never threaten and challenge any sin in our life!

It is comfortable (and comforting) to believe in a god who is love and nothing else.

Such a god will never offend us (nor or anyone else). Nothing will ever have to change in our life.

With the belief in an idol that we ourselves have created we can place ourselves on the throne instead. It is us, it is we ourselves who will reign and who will rule over our life's!

We can continue to live according to our will, to our wants, to our plans, to our ideas and to our desires.

God simply becomes an 'add-on' in life, a 'feel-good' factor, someone who is there to serve and to please us, someone who is there to ensure that our bank account will always be full to the max and that sickness will be kept away from us at all times in life.

And of course we have a right to enjoy this good and this prosperous life until we are 120 years old (according to the words of one such false teacher).

And when we meet up in church we do so for the sake of our enjoyment. We enjoy the music, ect. Even church is centered on us, around our wants, our needs and our desires.

We don't really worship him, if we are honest we have to admit that we worship our pleasure, our enjoyment instead and in church we simply seek the heavenly stamp of approval.

This is the core message of the false prosperity gospel, a false gospel which has done such incredible damage throughout the 3. World.

A gospel which lacks any serious emphasis on repentance is like a meal without any nutrients. It is like a message of salvation without the need for a cross.

It is a message which is void of any serious substance and it will eventually lead its followers into a dead end street.

When the time of testing will finally arrive (and it will happen sooner or later) most will desert their superficial 'faith' with a sense of betrayal and they will never be seen in church again (this has been proven again and again)

True repentance will always bring freedom and joy to our heart. Satan hates repentance and he will do anything he can in order to stop us from experiencing the true joy of repentance.

He will come forth with lies and with heresies, with anything he can in order to erect a wall which will separate us from the presence of God.

The freedom and the inner joy which come from repentance is one of the Christians greatest privileges.

Such a privilege, such joy, such a wonderful and wondrous restoration does not exist in any other religion. Neither can it be found in any of man's philosophies.

The true joy of repentance can only be found in our savior alone!

Repentance without the cross would never be possible.

Thus when anyone belittles our sins and preaches against the need for repentance he is trying to steal your birthright from you.

He is the thief that has been send forth by Satan himself!

Such a man, such a message must always be rejected!

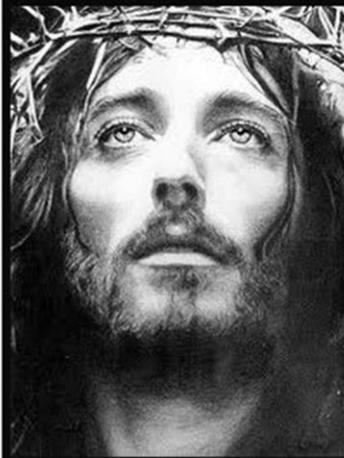

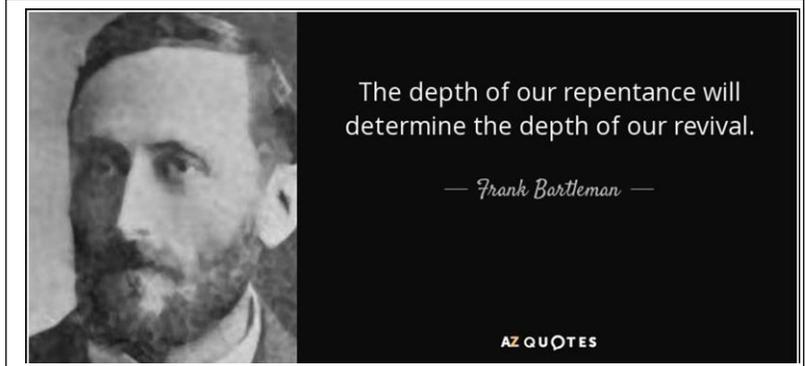

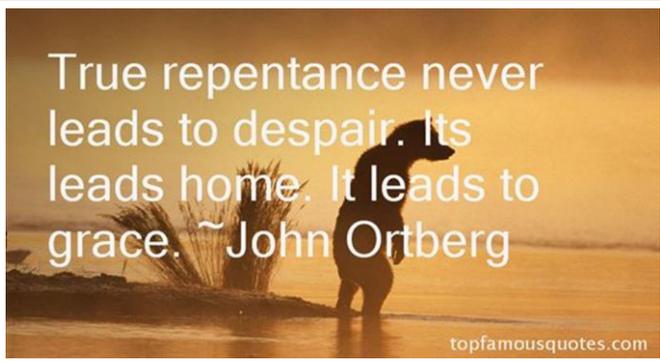

Our salvation was achieved on the cross but this salvation can only become a reality in the life of a sinner when he surrenders his life to his Lord and creator and repents of his sins. The call to repentance is an important part in the life of the church just as the Lord's Supper, as baptism and anything else is which produces a blessing in our life. This is why we find Jesus still calling Christians to repentance in the very last book of the Bible (in the book of Revelation) Ironically it is those churches; it is those Christians who no longer see the need to repent whom Jesus calls to repentance today.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9 | NIV

Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent. Revelation 3:19 | NIV

Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. Matthew 3:8 | NIV

We Aren't Saved
Without Repentance.
(Mark 1:15)
We Aren't Forgiven
Unless We Forgive.
(Matt. 6:14-15)

It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

(Jesus Christ)
