

The great Muslim dilemma

Once again the world has awoken to the terrible news of another terrorist attack. Yesterday it was a young Muslim man driving his truck into a crowd of people killing a great number of innocent civilians. Today another young Muslim man guns down more people in one of Munich's busiest shopping centers. Shortly afterwards another Muslim asylum seeker tries to kill a group of innocent civilians in a German train with an axe.

Not long after that another Muslim asylum seeker slashes a pregnant German woman with his machete and kills her outright. After that a Muslim suicide bomber blows himself up at a large open air music festival in Germany. Our headlines are filled daily with news of Islamic aggression and the world look on in confusion.

Just what can motivate a person to commit such horrendous crimes?

Whenever a gruesome event like this takes place our politicians are the first to assure the traumatized public that Islam had nothing to do with it at all.

It was simply a terrorist attack or the act of a madman. The man was obviously very sick in his head.

Within hours of any new attack we already receive a full medical analysis of the terrorist which always highlights his unstable mental condition.

His religious convictions are usually carefully removed from most media reports. The word 'Islam' is never mentioned once in any of the reports.

When the suicide bomber blew himself up at the city of Ansbach in Germany the Reuters news agency simply put it this way:

'the man was carrying a bomb which exploded'.

To call him a suicide bomber would have been far too offensive and to associate his action with Islam was completely out of the question.

It didn't matter that the man with the machete who slaughtered a pregnant woman or that the man who shot so many people in a Supermarket as well as all others shouted "Allah is greater" (Allah Akbar). To associate any of those attacks with Islam is politically incorrect and so the media tries to keep silent about it.

But there is one nagging question which will not go away.

Why did we never hear about such horrendous attacks which have recently occurred in France and in Germany before millions of Muslims have flooded into those countries?

Why has there never been a suicide bombing in Germany's history before?

Why has there never been any French madman who drove his truck into a large gathering of people with the aim to kill as many of his fellow countrymen as possible?

Why has no German ever killed a pregnant woman in public with a Machete before? The list goes on and it only opens more questions?

For so many years now we have been told that Islam means peace.

This lie which has been streaming forth almost daily from our TV screens as well as from our radios has become so common that many of us have slowly started to believe it. At the same time we are forced to witness how violence in the name of Allah has increased worldwide.

It has become very obvious that someone is not telling the truth!

But there is a deeper truth which is hidden beneath those terrible crimes. It is something which even many of our politicians do not understand otherwise they would have acted in our interest a long time ago.

The Quran teaches that there are 2 angels sitting on each person's shoulders.

One sits on the right side and takes note of all the good deeds that a person commits during his lifetime, the other sits on the left shoulder and records all the bad deeds which have been committed. When a person dies his deeds are put on a scale. If the good deeds outweigh the bad deeds then this person will be granted entry into Paradise.

But if his bad deeds outweigh his good deeds then he will be send straight into hell.

To most of us this sound childish and very naïve but to more than 1 billion Muslims worldwide this is the undisputed truth for this is what is written in the 'holy' Quran. (the book which has supposedly originated in heaven itself)

Many young Muslims across Europe and America live very secular life's. They drink alcohol, they don't pray as required, they don't even fast during Ramadan and some even dare to eat pork. But if challenged about their faith, not 1 single Muslim will have the courage to turn against the words which are written in their holy book, the Quran. No Muslim on earth would ever dare to challenge the words of this book. The words and the message of the Quran remain beyond all disputes for those words are sacred; they are beyond all human critique. Whatever is written in this book remains the ideal even if the message itself has often been completely ignored.

And this is where radicalization becomes easy. Every secular Muslim lives with an element of guilt for he or she knows that he has not been living up to Allah expectations. Once a Muslim realizes this he is suddenly caught in a terrible dilemma. He knows that he will never be able to erase all the bad deeds which he had committed in the past. He cannot remove his rebellious past behavior and simply erase the times when he consumed alcohol, when he had sex with a strange woman that he was not his wife, when he had failed to uphold his many religious duties.

Radicalization in Islam is nothing else than the return to a very radical book. And the pages of the Quran are very radical indeed. The Quran calls for the brutal murder of all homosexuals, of all gays and lesbians. This is what Allah desires and no Muslim would dare to disagree with the words of Allah himself. To do so is committing the unforgiveable sin which results in being send directly to hell once this life is over. The Quran calls for the death of all infidels, of all unbelievers (unless they accept the imposition of a very heavy Tax, of the Jizya which is placed upon all non-Muslims which turns them into literal slaves.

Surah 7:3 “Little do you remember My warning. How many towns have We destroyed as a raid by night? Our punishment took them suddenly while they slept for their afternoon rest. Our terror came to them; Our punishment overtook them.”

Surah 9:29 “Fight those who do not believe until they all surrender, paying the protective tax in submission.”

Our politicians including many church and civil leaders have traditionally divided Muslims into groups, into radical and moderate Muslims.

But as President Erdogan of Turkey had correctly pointed out, the categorization of Islam into such groups is offensive and is an insult to Islam.

(PM Erdogan: The Term ‘Moderate Islam’ Is Ugly And Offensive; There Is No Moderate Islam; Islam Is Islam)

Once the ‘secular’, the uncommitted Muslim realizes his shortcomings and starts to take this book and his religion serious again he is instantly branded a ‘radical’. But it is not him who is radical, if anything is radical then it is the book which he has chosen to follow!

‘Moderate Islam’ does not exist in the pages of the Quran. The Qurans instructions are plain, clear and simple.

Surah 9:5 “Fight and kill the disbelievers wherever you find them, take them captive, harass them, lie in wait and ambush them using every stratagem of war.”

Surah 8:59 “The infidels should not think that they can get away from us. Prepare against them whatever arms and weaponry you can muster so that you may terrorize them.”

Once a backslidden or disobedient Muslim returns to the instructions of his book he will automatically be turned into a ‘radical’ just as Mohammad was very ‘radical’ himself.

Surah 7:3 “Little do you remember My warning. How many towns have We destroyed as a raid by night? Our punishment took them suddenly while they slept for their afternoon rest. Our terror came to them; Our punishment overtook them.”

Surah 8:67 “It is not fitting for any prophet to have prisoners until he has made a great slaughter in the land.”

He too killed and beheaded his opponents and he did so in the name of Allah. But what do our leaders do when another horrendous crime has been committed in the name of the god of Islam? They assure us every single time that this had nothing to do with Islam!!!

Such a lie is the equivalent of telling a Jew that Nazi propaganda had nothing to do with the persecution of his people during the time of the 3. Reich.

And of course Hitler never meant it literal when he called for the extermination of the entire Jewish race!

But history will always expose a lie in the end.

Right now we are confronted with the biggest lie of the century.

It is the lie that Islam means peace!

Even the Pope himself is in on that lie when he promotes the illusion that the Quran does not differ from the pages of the Bible, that both books are exactly the same.

He has obviously never read the Bible otherwise he would know that this is simply a lie!

But every time when another brutal act of terror hits our news our leaders are left with no answers. They cannot provide us with answers (apart from more lies) for they simply refuse to accept what has happened.

And so the media comes up with scapegoats. And it's always same explanations. It's mental illness, it's some mental disturbance which has caused the individual to shout "Allah Akbar" before he had fired his gun.

The greatest difference between Allah, the god of the Quran and the God of the Bible is that Allah in the Quran does not forgive sins like God does in the Bible.

In Islam everyone has to earn his own entry into paradise.

So when the troubled Muslim mind suddenly realizes that he is confronted with a mountain of bad deeds from his past which weigh heavy on one side of his shoulder, with guilt which cannot be erased he suddenly looks for an answer and for an easy way out.

But when we look further into the pages of the Quran the plot only thickens.

A man was once plagued by great guilt and haunted by fears about his eternal future so he spoke to Mohammad about it. But even Mohammad could not resolve his dilemma.

Mohammad admitted that he was not even sure about his own eternal future.

(Surah 46:9) He did not know if Allah would even accept him into paradise or not.

When even the great Prophet of Islam did not know where he was heading after his death what hope is there for the rest of the world's 1 billion Muslims? How can they find any peace and assurance since their life's have not been exactly obedient to the rules and the laws which are set out in the Quran?

In the secular western world we cannot understand this dilemma for most people don't even believe in God anymore. Most of us could not care less about what could be waiting for us on the other side of the grave but the average Muslim does not think the same way. He is deeply troubled about what to expect once he has died.

In the Quran Allah is also called the great 'deceiver'. The fear of having been deceived sits deep within the Islamic conscience. Deception is a religious virtue in Islam. Unfortunately this is something which American and European negotiators consistently fail to understand during their negotiations with their Muslim counterparts (as witnessed so clearly in the Iranian nuclear negotiations where the Iranian experts made the American delegation look like a bunch of amateurs)

But the Quran provides 1 single way out of this dilemma. The Quran states that if a person is killed during violent jihad, whilst he is fighting the unbeliever than he will automatically be granted entry into paradise.

There will be no questions asked!

Not only will this person be granted entry into paradise but he will also be greatly rewarded for his bravery. He will receive 72 attractive young virgins as a 'thank you' gesture from Allah himself. Those unfortunate 'virgins' will become the man's personal property and that for all times to come. They will be his sex slaves and their sole duty in eternity will be to fulfill and satisfy every sexual urge and every desire which arises in the former 'Jihadi'.

This has truly been a 'win-win' for Allah's brave soldier!

By sacrificing his life in fighting Allah's enemies (the defenseless and unarmed infidel civilians) he suddenly has had all his past sins removed (according to the Quran this is the only way that all sins can be forgiven in 1 single stroke) and at the same time he has been rewarded for it with what he has always desired most, with sex without boundaries and limits!

As much as our leaders and politicians want to remove Islam from any terrorist attack, by doing so they only expose their ignorance to the public.

They allow us to see that they simply do not understand.

Terrorism and Islam are completely intertwined.

Surah 8:12 “I will terrorize the unbelievers. Therefore smite them on their necks and every joint and incapacitate them. Strike off their heads and cut off each of their fingers and toes.”

Bukhari:V4B52N220 “Allah’s Apostle said, ‘I have been made victorious with terror.’

Surah 8:12 “I shall terrorize the infidels. So wound their bodies and incapacitate them because they oppose Allah and His Apostle.”

Surah 48:13 “If any believe not in Allah and His Messenger, We have prepared a Blazing Fire for them!”

Surah 9:123 “Fight the unbelievers around you, and let them find harshness in you.”

Terrorism cannot be removed from Islam. Terrorism has always been a vital part of Islam right throughout its bloodthirsty history.

To remove terrorism and violent jihad from Islam would be the same as removing the cross from Christianity.

Without it you have a religion which looks weak and defenseless (at least in the minds of most Muslims).

The stronger Islam grows in a nation, the more intolerant and the more violent it will eventually become.

When Mohammad’s army was small and outnumbered he preached ‘tolerance’. But once he had the upper hand his noble ideals quickly faded away. During the latter part of his life Mohammad started to despise ‘peaceful’ Muslims.

It did not take long before the nations of Islam were all ruled by the sword.

We can deny history, we can ignore it but by doing so we will only face the same lessons all over again.

The western world at large, our media, our educator, our politicians are blatantly ignorant of the facts of history. They have chosen to live in denial!

Because of our denial and our willful ignorance our children and grandchildren will one day be forced to face the same painful lessons that our ancestors were confronted with in the past.

Denial has never cured a single disease!

Denial only ever leads to more pain and to an early death in the end.

It is because of our ignorance and because of our denial that we will be confronted with an ever increasing number of terrorist attacks in the near future.

This has only been the beginning!

They will not only bomb our airports, our buses and our trains as they have done in the past but the day will come when they will attack our churches, our schools, our hospitals and many of our public institutions.

Sooner or later we will be forced to wake up and face a very painful truth.

But the longer we live in ignorance and the longer we hide in denial the more painful the lessons will become in the future, the more blood will eventually be demanded of us!

It's time we start to wake up!

Surah 8:39 "So fight them until there is no more Fitnah (disbelief [non-Muslims]) and all submit to the religion of Allah alone (in the whole world)."

Surah 8:39 "Fight them until all opposition ends and all submit to Allah."

ISLAM

Koran 3:28 "Muslims must not take the infidels as friends."
Koran 3:85 "Any religion other than Islam is not acceptable."
